

UNIFORM POLICY

It is the Association's policy that all representative players wear appropriate THA apparel when attending state championships or when participating in a THA organised event. This policy applies to under 13 teams and above.

Aims and Objectives

Our policy on uniform's is based on the notion that uniform's:

- a) Promote a sense of pride in the Association;
- b) Identifies the players with the Association.

Compulsory Uniform (State Championships)

Male

All male players will be required to purchase royal blue shorts and navy blue socks as part of their playing uniform, and the alternative strip (if required).

Other compulsory items are:

- a) THA tracksuit jacket;
- b) THA tracksuit pants;
- c) THA walk-out shirt.

Female

All female players will be required to purchase hot pink socks as part of their playing uniform, and the alternative strip (if required).

Other compulsory items are:

- a) THA tracksuit jacket;
- b) THA tracksuit pants;
- c) THA walk-out shirt.

Exchange/Return of Uniform

An exchange on any unworn and/or unused items of uniform needs to be directed to Reception on (07) 4633 1229.

Dress Code

The dress code for assembly when departing for state championships, southern cross or coulter shield tournaments and upon return is the Toowoomba Hockey Association's walk-out shirt and tracksuit (if appropriate weather) or blue shorts. Dress code throughout the championships, southern cross or coulter shield tournaments is up to the discretion of the THA Manager of the team.

Other Apparel

Apparel outside the above compulsory items, such as souvenir shirts, hoodies, shorts etc will need to include the THA logo. A copy of the THA logo for screen printing or embroidery can be obtained from office@toowoombahockey.com.au.
